

CITY OF KNOXVILLE

Business Advisory Council

Members of the Business Advisory Council (BAC) are appointed by the Mayor and serve in an advisory and partnership capacity to promote regular and open communication between city government and businesses to:

- Give advice and feedback to the Office of Business Support
- Bring issues and concerns related to doing business in Knoxville to the attention of the city administration
- Propose responses and solution to address these concerns
- Serve as a sounding board for city initiatives and proposals affecting businesses

The BAC is composed of a diverse group of business owners, who meet every other month. Members serve two-year terms to insure that, over time, a large number of representatives from the Knoxville business community have a voice and to encourage new perspectives.
