EMERGENCY EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 31
BY THE MAYOR OF THE CITY OF KNOXVILLE

WHEREAS, I, Indya Kincannon, Mayor of the City of Knoxville, declared a civil emergency on March 16, 2020, pursuant to TENN. CODE ANN. §§ 38-9-101, et seq. and 58-2-110 and Knoxville Code 9-1 due to the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic; and

WHEREAS, as of September 18, 2020, there were at least 178,140 COVID-19 cases in Tennessee, with 8,807 confirmed cases in Knox County and evidence of continued community transmission; and

WHEREAS, many lives have been saved because of restrictions like those required by the Knox County Health Department; however, more than 2,164 Tennesseans have lost their lives because of Covid-19, and the disease still presents a serious threat across Tennessee that could persist in certain areas; and

WHEREAS, the purpose of this Emergency Executive Order No. 31 is to extend the declaration of emergency set forth in the City of Knoxville's executive order adopted on March 16, 2020 for another seven (7) days until September 25, 2020, to complement the Knox County Health Department's Community Strategy for Phased Reopening.

1. Extension. The Proclamation of Emergency declared on March 16, 2020 shall be extended for a period of seven (7) days, from September 18, 2020 at 12:00 a.m. until September 25, 2020, unless modified or rescinded by further mayoral action as circumstances require.

2. Intent of this Order. The intent of this Order is to extend the existing declaration of Civil Emergency so as to complement the Knox County Health Department's Community Strategy for a Phased Reopening of Knox County and the City of Knoxville. All provisions of this Order should be interpreted to effectuate this intent. The Director of Law, or his designee(s), shall have the authority to provide clarifications, make findings, and issue opinions in relation to this Order.

ORDERED, EFFECTIVE AND ISSUED:

INDYA KINCANNON
Mayor, City of Knoxville
