

REGISTRATION

Email or Mail the information below by
March 20, 2006 to:

Knoxville
Family Justice Center

Margaret Terry
400 Harriet Tubman Street
Knoxville, TN 37915
Phone: (865) 215-4150 (Jo Terry)
E-Mail: mterry@cityofknoxville.org

I will attend the Promising Practices:

March 28 & 29, 2006
March 28, 2006 Only
March 29, 2006 Only

I will need CEUs!

Discipline:

Advocate	Attorney	Faith Community
Fire Fighter/EMT	Judiciary	Law Enforcement
Military Nurse	Physician	Student
Researcher	Other

I'm an FJC partner & will attend the
Strategic Action Planning Meeting:
March 30, 2006

Name:

Title:

Agency:

Mailing Address:

City, State, Zip:

Phone:

Fax:

E-Mail:

PROMISING PRACTICES VISION

This two-day conference will include national experts presenting promising practices in intimate partner violence intervention and enforcement.

All conference participants will attend all sessions together.

The goal is to have ALL professionals who work with victims of family violence and all interested members of the community, gain a shared understanding and facilitate future discussions about appropriate service models for Knoxville.

WELCOME

This project was supported by Award No. 2004-WE-BX-K001 awarded by the Office on Violence Against Women, Office of Justice Programs, United States Department of Justice.

The President's Family Justice Center Initiative

Knoxville Family Justice Center Promising Practices Conference

Presented by

The U. S. Department of Justice
Office on Violence Against Women in partnership with the
San Diego Family Justice Center

March 28-29, 2006
8:00am-5:00pm

*Knoxville Marriott
500 Hill Avenue, SE
Knoxville, Tennessee 37915*

WELCOME

CONFERENCE AGENDA

LOCATION:

Knoxville Marriott
500 Hill Avenue, SE
Knoxville, TN 37915

Registration & Continental Breakfast

28th and 29th
7:30am-8:30am

Tuesday, March 28, 2006 8:30am-5:00pm

Promising Practices Overview/FJC Vision
Investigation of Domestic Violence Cases
Offender Accountability

Hosted Lunch: Promising Practices in the Courts

Cultural Competency Role Plays
Forensic Medical Issues/Strangulation

Wednesday, March 29, 2006 8:30am-5:00pm

Danger Assessment and Safety Planning
A Survivor's Story
"Walk a Mile in Her Shoes"
Teamwork in the Family Justice Center
Prosecution of Domestic Violence Cases
"You're a Hero"

*Thursday, March 30, 2006 8:30am-3:30pm

For Knoxville FJC Onsite/Offsite Partners Only
Strategic Action Planning Meeting

- Knoxville FJC Accomplishments Thus Far
- Laying a Foundation for Future Effectiveness
- Working Brown Bag Lunch
- Action Planning for Results

CONFERENCE INFORMATION

ACCREDITATION

This is an accredited conference for health and mental health professionals and attorneys. Participants wishing continuing education credits should sign up at the conference site. Certificates will be issued at the close of the conference.

REGISTRATION

The conference is FREE, but registration is required by Monday, March 20, 2006. For more information or to register, contact Jo Terry at (865) 215-4150.

PRESENTERS

Judge Carl Ashley is assigned to the Children's Court Division of Milwaukee County Circuit Court. He serves as a national faculty member for the President's Family Justice Center Initiative and on the Advisory Committee of the National Judicial Center.

Dr. Jacquelyn Campbell is the Anna D. Wolf Endowed Professor and Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs in the Johns Hopkins University School of Nursing with a joint appointment in the Bloomberg School of Public Health. She serves as a national faculty member for the President's Family Justice Center Initiative.

Cindy Dyer is the chief prosecutor of the Dallas County District Attorney's Office and a member of the board of directors for the Texas Council on Family Violence, the City of Dallas Domestic Violence Task Force and the Family Violence Task Force and the Family Violence Prevention Council.

Casey Gwinn serves as the national director for the President's Family Justice Center Initiative Technical Assistance Project. As elected San Diego city attorney from 1996-2004, Casey led the effort to open the nationally acclaimed San Diego Family Justice Center. He is currently director of victim services for the San Diego County District Attorney's Office.

Barbara Hart is legal director of the Pennsylvania Coalition Against Domestic Violence and associate director of the Battered Women's Justice Project. She serves as a national faculty member for the President's Family Justice Center Initiative.

James E. Henderson, Jr. is a probation officer with the Domestic Violence Probation Unit in Ann Arbor, Michigan and a member of the national faculty of the American Prosecutor's Research Institute (APRI).

Phil Keith retired as Knoxville Chief of Police in 2004. He is currently working as Program Manager for Training and Technical Assistance for the Department of Justice AMBER Alert Initiative and Fox Valley Technical College. He also serves as the Director for Community and Government Affairs for the Tennessee Association for Chiefs of Police. Keith serves as a national faculty member for the President's Family Justice Center Initiative.

Rhonda Martinson is a staff attorney for the Battered Women's Justice Project. She provides technical assistance, such as site visits, telephone consultation, writing partnerships and training to criminal justice professionals regarding current domestic violence issues and laws.

Dr. George McClane is the medical director for the San Diego Family Justice Center's Forensic Medical Unit, an associate professor of community medicine for Stanford Medical School and an emergency physician. He lectures and writes on the medical aspects of domestic violence.

Gael Strack is director of the San Diego Family Justice Center, an adjunct law professor for Cal Western Law School and a member of the American Bar Association's Commission on Domestic Violence. She was formerly the Assistant City Attorney for the Office of the San Diego City Attorney's Office.

Dr. Sujata Warrior is director of the Health Care Bureau of the New York State Office for the Prevention of Domestic Violence. She serves as a national faculty member for the President's Family Justice Center Initiative.

Mark Wynn was a twenty year member of the Nashville Metropolitan Police Dept., where he served as Lieutenant of the Domestic Violence Division, as a member of the Special Weapons and Tactics (SWAT) Team for fifteen years. He is the recipient of 121 commendations and 51 awards and certificates including the 1998 Nashvillian of the Year Award and the National Improvement of Justice Award.