EMERGENCY AND REGULATORY CONTACTS

List of Emergency Phone Numbers

In the event of a serious hazard to life, property or the environment, the first phone call shall be made to the 911 emergency dispatching center. The second phone call should preferably be made to a hazardous materials contractor for which an arrangement has been previously established. The next phone calls shall be made to the Knox County Emergency Management Agency, Knoxville Water Quality Hotline, and TDEC.

The Knoxville Water Quality Hotline is intended to receive anonymous reporting of water quality concerns and emergency notification calls 24 hours per day. Engineering staff will investigate, coordinate, and enforce illegal dumping, illicit discharges, and spills to the storm drainage system, river, or creeks within the city of Knoxville. Staff are on hand to assist, not replace, your emergency response contractor or the City HAZMAT team with the location of the drainage system network, remediation evaluation, enforcement, reporting, mitigation and prevention planning.

Stormwater & Street Ordinance - Spill Reporting Requirements

Section 22.5-53 Notification of Spills and Illicit Discharges

“As soon as any person has knowledge of any illicit spills or discharges to the stormwater system in violation of the City of Knoxville Stormwater and Street Ordinance, such person shall immediately notify the Engineering Director by telephone [i.e. the Water Quality Hotline 215-4147] of this discharge. If such person is directly or indirectly responsible for such discharge or responsible for the operation of the system or business, then such person shall also take immediate action to ensure the containment and cleanup of such discharge and shall confirm such telephone notification with a written report to the Engineering Director within three (3) calendar days. At a minimum, the written report for any illicit discharge shall include: 1) date and time of the discharge, 2) location of the discharge, 3) material or substance discharged, 4) duration and rate of flow, 5) total volume discharged, 6) total volume recovered, 7) cause or reason for the discharge, 8) remediation and containment action taken, 9) Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDS) for the discharged material, 10) action taken to prevent further discharges, and 11) description of any environmental impact.”

The following list is a directory of hazardous materials contractors operating in the Knox County area at the time that this BMP is issued. This list is furnished as a service and for your convenience only. The City of Knoxville does not endorse any firm listed, nor do we offer any certification that their work meets any quality standard established by the State of Tennessee or the United States Government. Before any spills occur, it would be advisable to contact an emergency response firm to set up an account and to discuss their ability to handle a particular type of incident.

If the City of Knoxville is required to use a hazardous materials contractor due to negligence, delay, or lack of response on the part of the responsible party, the negligent party may be billed by the City of Knoxville at double the cost to the City plus any other applicable punitive penalties.
